

INTERNATIONAL GENEVA Impact Infographic on FOOD

+ 1 000 ISO Standards are specifically dedicated to

FOOD

ISO 3591 determines the size of wine-tasting glasses

ISO 7304 provides cooking times for spaghetti

ISO 3103 explains how to make a perfect CUP OF TEA

ISO

Food production

+ 60% is needed in 2050 to feed

an estimated population of 9 billion people

FAO

ITC in Kenya

rolled out training and advisory services that improved productivity in Mace Foods and Green Forest Food

Delivery Order

MACE FOOD

packing rate +92% faster

Delivery Order

GREEN FOREST FOOD

packing rate +28% faster

Iodine deficiency is the most common cause of brain damage in the world

GAIN

works with UNICEF in 16 countries to help add iodine to salt so people can get enough in their diets

WHO

works to make food safe and nutritious all over the world

WHO-FAO CODEX sets 100s of food standards, codes of practice and guidelines

UNECE

has developed +100 standards for fresh and dried fruit, vegetables, nuts, meat, eggs, seed potatoes and flowers

UNEP

is working to minimize food waste

OHCHR

The Special Rapporteur encourages governments to implement relevant legal frameworks and policies to promote the right to adequate food for all

THE FOOD SECTOR is responsible for

UN-Water

+ 2 billion people work in Agriculture

+60% of child labour is found in Agriculture

ILO

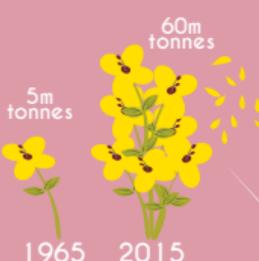

FAO & ILO have a project in Zambia

TO IMPROVE incomes to farmers nutrition of rural and urban consumers

+ 3,000 new jobs for young women and men

WTO

helps its members to negotiate agricultural reforms to level the playing field between developing and developed countries has supported breeders to develop Canola varieties that have transformed the market. From oil used for steam engines to high-quality cooking oil.

UPOV

- ENGINE LUBRICANT
- ANIMAL FEED
- HIGH QUALITY COOKING OIL

BRS CONVENTIONS

Production, trade and consumption of DDT has been constantly decreased from 1965 to 2015

KOFI ANNAN FOUNDATION

The Kofi Annan Foundation engages leaders from both the public and private sectors to promote African agricultural transformation in support of smallholder farmers.

SUN

NUTRITION-RELATED FACTORS contribute to around 45% of deaths in children under 5

UNESCO

98% OF FARMERS grow organic food at the UNESCO biosphere reserve Val Mustar-Park Nozound

This infographic has been crowd-sourced in collaboration with the International Organization for Standardization (ISO), the International Trade Center (ITC), Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN), Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) Liaison Office in Geneva, United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE), United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) Office in Geneva, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Office in Geneva, UN-Water, Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), International Labour Organization (ILO), Kofi Annan Foundation, World Trade Organization (WTO), Union for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants (UPOV), Secretariat of Basel, Rotterdam and Stockholm Conventions, Scaling Up Nutrition (SUN), World Health Organization (WHO), for the International Geneva Food Talks at the Swiss Pavillon, Expo Milan on 19 September.

